

Tools for Life Fair 2010 Session Schedule

Yellow in Day and Time column indicates sessions covered by Sign Language Interpreters

Day and Time	Room	Strand	Presenter	Company/Agency	Session Title	Session Description
Monday, March 1, 2010
M 10:30 - 12:00 pm	Ballroom	Self-Advocacy	Sarah Vazquez	Self-Advocate	I Am	Writing has been a powerful tool in Sarah Helena Vazquez life. In her workshop Sarah uses the "I Am" poem as a tool to have participants express their fears, hopes, talents, and dreams. Even if you think you cannot write a poem, participants will leave this workshop understanding we all have a powerful voice which can help us shape our future and the future of others around us.
M 10:30 - 11:30 am	Clearwater	Self-Deter: Students	Irene Jones/Beth Eloee-Reep	Idaho Falls Community Transition Team	You're at Tools for Life! Now What?	Ever been to a conference? What is a conference all about? Join us for fun and games as we learn how to select sessions to attend, how to network with other youth and adults, and how to find valuable information.
M 10:30 - 11:30 am	Delamar	AT/IT: All	Steven Snow	Idaho Council for the Deaf and Hard of Hearing	Road to Greater Independence: Revolutionizing of Assistive Technology for the Deaf and Hard of Hearing	This interactive presentation will cover some earliest assistive technology used to assist deaf people in the past and show how technology has evolved and modernized to widen the horizon of independence. What factors need to be addressed when making AT selections and the development of a whole person philosophy will be discussed.
M 10:30 - 11:30 am	Liberty	Employment: All	David Wallace Eastwood	Idaho Career Information System	Career Information System: Tools to Help Map Out Your Future	For 30 years the Idaho Career Information System (CIS) has provided career and education planning solutions to students, parents, and educators. With detailed Idaho and national information, CIS helps with graduation plans, exploring occupations, skills assessments, and career development curriculum.
M 10:30 - 11:30 am	Emerald	Community Living, : All	Patricia McDaniel	Epilepsy Foundation of Idaho	Epilepsy 101: Information for Transitioning Students	This session will provide general information on seizure recognition, first aid, therapy options as well as social and economic implications of epilepsy and quality of life issues.
M 10:30 - 11:30 am	Garnet	Self-Deter: Teachers	Lana Kirkham and Bird Derrick	Shelley School District	Why Try?	Why Try is a unique program that improves student retention, academic performance and school climate. The Why Try program is a simple hands-on curriculum which helps youth overcome their challenges. It helps students resist peer-pressure and teaches students that decisions have consequences, which are reinforced by music and physical activities. This curriculum can be incorporated into an existing course. You will leave with handouts and other goodies.
M 10:30 - 11:30 am	Opal	Employment: All	Scott Truax	American Federation for the Blind Career Connect®	CareerConnect	AFB CareerConnect®—a free resource for people who want to learn about the range and diversity of jobs performed by adults who are blind or visually impaired throughout the United States and Canada. Whether you are a student exploring careers, a job seeker investigating work options, an employer planning to diversify your workforce, a professional working with visually impaired people, or a friend or family member assisting someone who is blind or has low vision, this web site can help you! Please join Scott Truax as he shares this very valuable resource with you.

Tools for Life Fair 2010 Session Schedule

Yellow in Day and Time column indicates sessions covered by Sign Language Interpreters

Day and Time	Room	Strand	Presenter	Company/Agency	Session Title	Session Description
Monday, March 1, 2010
M 10:30 - 11:30 am	Topaz	Self-Deter: Students	Mary Jo Butler	Disability Rights Idaho	Self-Advocacy Training: What is a Guardian and Do I Need One?	After age 18, you have the right to make your own choices. You may or may not want a guardian to help you. This training will help you learn about guardians and your rights.
M 10:30 am - 12:00 pm	Cinnabar	AT/IT: All	Kathy Griffin and Anne Kuhlmeier	ICAT	AAC Show and Tell and More	The AT lending Library at the Idaho Center for Assistive Technology has many new Augmentative and Alternative Communication (AAC) devices. Please join us for an overview of a variety of devices in a show and tell format. Presenters will also discuss AAC assessment, feature matching, device loaning, and implementation.
M 10:30 am - 12:00 pm	North Star	Community Living: Students, Parents, Teachers	Karen Richel	UI Extension in Financial Education	"That's Life" Simulation	"That's Life is a "real-life simulation" where you will be able to experience a glimpse of the future in a fun way. In an hour and a half, you will get to know some basic financial planning, decision making, and goal setting skills. You will also explore possible career choices, consider future goals, and find out another reason why school is so important...all while playing a game. Join us for some fun!
M 1:30 - 2:30 pm	Cinnabar	AT/IT: All	Nora Jehn and Todd DeVries	IATP	Accessible Books and Textbooks	All students need access to the curriculum. Many students with disabilities need accessible instructional materials. Let us show you the many free or low cost sources of electronic, large print, audio, high interest/low reading level, and Braille books, periodicals, and textbooks available to Idaho students. Also learn how your school can receive free text-to-speech and scan-and-read software.
M 1:30 - 2:30 pm	Clearwater	Community Living: STUDENTS ONLY	Camille R. Workman	Boise State University Health Services	Healthy Relationships and Identifying Readiness	This presentation will focus on important qualities of healthy relationships and relationship readiness with others. We will investigate roles and rules in our families that contribute to our expectations in relationships and influence how we operate. Students will participate in self-exploration exercises and be able to describe family roles and rules as well as be able to identify qualities of good and not so good relationships.

Tools for Life Fair 2010 Session Schedule

Yellow in Day and Time column indicates sessions covered by Sign Language Interpreters

Day and Time	Room	Strand	Presenter	Company/Agency	Session Title	Session Description
Monday, March 1, 2010
M 1:30 - 2:30 pm	Delamar	Employment: All	Timothy Chevalier	PEPNet	PEPNet Presents: Transition from School to Work	PEPNet, the Postsecondary Education Programs Network's Timothy Chevalier will present to students who are deaf or hard of hearing. He will be sharing resources and information that will help students transition from high school to the world of work. He will share resources that will help one stay successful on the job, as well as assistive technology that will enhance the ease of communication.
M 1:30 - 2:30 pm	Liberty	Self Deter: Students	Mel Leviton	Disability Rights Idaho	Tools Box for Success: How to Deal with People Who Say "You Can't" and Other Bullies	Do you want to be involved in your community? Do you want more education? Want to find a good job? Do people say, "You Can't" when you think YOU CAN ? Build Self-Esteem,! Increase Independence! Be part of your Community!
M 1:30 - 2:30 pm	Emerald	Self-Deter: Students, Parents, Teachers	Irene Jones/Tracy Warren	Idaho Interagency Council on Secondary Transition	You're Moving On! Tools to Help with Transition	The Moving On binder is designed to assist you in the transition process as you prepare for life after high school. Learn how you can be a self-advocate and plan for your future!
M 1:30 - 2:30 pm	Garnet	Employment: All	Nanna Hanchett - Idaho Commission for the Blind and Visually Impaired and Bruce Christopherson - Idaho Division of Vocational Rehabilitation	ICBVI and IDVR	Vocational Rehabilitation Services - An Essential Tool in Your Transition Process	This presentation will explain the purpose of vocational rehabilitation program for both ICBVI and IDVR and how vocational rehabilitation can assist a student, parent, and other professional with transition planning and coordination while the student is still in high school. We will discuss: application and eligibility for vocational rehabilitation; the VR process; post-secondary training; and employment readiness and other related topics.
M 1:30 - 2:30 pm	Opal	Post-Secondary Ed: All	Teri, Cami, & Rebecca Smith	Teri - IPUL Rebecca & Cami-Students	Keys to Creating a Collaborative Transition Plan/Team and What Is Your Roll	Rebecca, a college bound student, Cami, a second year college student, along with their mother, Teri, will address the process of creating a collaborative transition team for students with a disability. Focus will be directed to planning and team member rolls.
M 1:30 - 2:30 pm	Topaz	Community Living: Parents, Teachers, Ser. Prov, Profess	Debra Cooper & Pamela Houston-Powell	Filer School District	Developing and Implementing 18-21 Programs for Adult Students with Disabilities	Learn how to develop and implement a program designed to help 18 to 21 year olds students gain the confidence and basic skills necessary to move from school environments into active roles in the workforce and their communities.
M 1:30 - 2:30 pm	Pool	Community Living: All	Miles Moore	SAIL	Accessible Sailing	This session will show that sailing can be for everyone. Accessible sailing technology and education will be shown and discussed.
M 1:30 - 3:30 pm	North Star	Community Living: Students, Parents, Teachers	Karen Richel	UI Extension in Financial Education	"That's Life" Simulation	"That's Life is a "real-life simulation" where you will be able to experience a glimpse of the future in a fun way. In an hour and a half, you will get to know some basic financial planning, decision making, and goal setting skills. You will also explore possible career choices, consider future goals, and find out another reason why school is so important...all while playing a game. Join us for some fun!

Tools for Life Fair 2010 Session Schedule

Yellow in Day and Time column indicates sessions covered by Sign Language Interpreters

Day and Time	Room	Strand	Presenter	Company/Agency	Session Title	Session Description
Monday, March 1, 2010
M 2:45 - 3:45 pm	Cinnabar	AT/IT: All	Steve Boyle	Freedom Scientific, Learning Systems Group	Tips for Maximizing Your AT Potential with WYNN Software	Steve Boyle will lead an interactive session highlighting the strengths of the WYNN reading assistive technology software program. WYNN benefits everyone who struggles with reading. This presentation will give attendees insight as to how it works as an effective accommodation.
M 2:45 - 3:45 pm	Clearwater	Post Secondary Ed: Student, Parents	Katelyn Smith	Boise State University	Entering a Brave New World: Keys for a Successful Transition to College	Considering going to college, and thinking, "Now What?" Come and get some guidance on what to do next. Learn about your rights, responsibilities, and accommodations. Parents, there is even a section for you on the difference between being a parent in the K-12 system and the college and university system.
M 2:45 - 3:45 pm	Delamar	Post Secondary Ed: All	Timothy Chevalier	PEPNet	PEPNet Presents: Transition from High School to College and Training Programs	PEPNet, the Postsecondary Education Programs Network's Timothy Chevalier will present to students who are deaf or hard of hearing. He will be sharing resources and information that will help students transition from high school to college and to other training programs. He will share resources and assistive technologies that will enhance one's success at college and training programs.
M 2:45 - 3:45 pm	Liberty	Community Living: Students	Christine Pisani and Mel Leviton	Christine - ICDD Mel - Disability Rights Idaho	Support: Determined to Vote: Your Vote is Your Voice!	Will you vote this year? Come to this non-partisan, energetic workshop and learn the basics of Voting in Idaho: from voter registration to your voting rights as a person with a disability or perhaps as a person with a guardian.
M 2:45 - 3:45 pm	Emerald	Employment: All	Melisa Bryant, Gordon Graff, Sandy Hacking, Janalee Henderson, Beth Larson, Windy Melgaard, Bonnie Niles, Julie Sherry	Dept of Labor Disability Program Navigators	The Young and the Workless: Five Acts to Future Employment	A presentation of job readiness skills in a humorous skit format. The "play" covers everything from the Application in Act I to Your Job Performance in Act V. Presenters will play the role of Job Seekers, Employers and Customers showing the wrong way and right way to do things.
M 2:45 - 3:45 pm	Garnet	AT/IT: Students, Parents, Teachers, Service Provider	Kathy Griffin	ICAT	New AT for Work and School	This session will explore newer technology, both high and low tech that can be useful for both employment and school from a pen that records the lecture or staff meeting to software that can put your English reading assignment on your MP3 player.
M 2:45 - 3:45 pm	Opal	Self-Deter: STUDENTS ONLY	Jen and Larkin Seiler	Self Advocates	Healthy Relationships: From Being Friends to Getting Married	In this session, self-advocates Larkin Seiler and Jen Magelky-Seiler will discuss how their relationship evolved from friendship to dating to becoming husband and wife and what it takes to have good relationships along the way with family, friends and all the people you love.

Tools for Life Fair 2010 Session Schedule

Yellow in Day and Time column indicates sessions covered by Sign Language Interpreters

Day and Time	Room	Strand	Presenter	Company/Agency	Session Title	Session Description
Monday, March 1, 2010
M 2:45 - 3:45 pm	Topaz	Post Secondary Ed: Students, Parents, Teachers	Wendy Turner	IPHED/Boise State University	The Daring Book for College Students: A Guide to all the Little Things You Should Know About College	What is FAFSA? Who is a Dean? What's the difference between an AA degree and a BA degree? What is a syllabus? College life can sound mysterious and strange. This session will de-mystify some of the processes and terms so students can confidently begin their college career.
M 4:00 - 4:30 pm	Cinnabar	AT/IT: Teachers, Ser. Providers, Profess.	Nora Jehn	IATP	Assistive Technology Professionals Meeting	Assistive Technology Professionals (ATP) help students around the state provide assistive technology assessments, training, and technical assistance. Learn about becoming an ATP, starting an AT team in your school, get Idaho Assistive Technology Project updates, and meet ATPs from around the state.
M 6:30 - 7:30 pm	Cinnabar	Computer Lab
Monday, March 1, 2010 - PARENT SESSIONS
M 6:30 - 7:30 pm	Clearwater	Supporting Rural Families, Post Sec.,: Parents, Ser. Provider	Deborah Cuilla and Fran Wood	IFAD	Idaho Families of Adults with disAbilities - IFAD	This session will describe how IFAD can be of support to family members of disAbled adults by offering encouragement, practical tools and resources.
M 6:30 - 7:30 pm	Delamar	Self-Deter: All	Charlene K. Quade	CK Quade Law, LLC	Preservation of Government Benefits – Special Needs Trusts, Supplemental Need Trusts	Special needs trusts (also known as "supplemental" trusts) allow a disabled beneficiary to receive gifts, lawsuit settlements, or other funds and yet not lose his or her eligibility for certain government programs and ensuring quality of life. It is never too soon to establish a qualifying trust for an individual with rights to government benefits. Proper planning provides peace of mind, and reduces unforeseen loss of benefits and disruption of services into the future.
M 6:30 - 7:30 pm	Liberty	Employment: Parents, Teachers, Ser. provider	Suzie Hanks	Disability Rights Idaho	Federal and State Benefits 101	Knowing the differences between Supplemental Security Income, Social Security Disability Insurance and Disabled Adult Child benefits, and how these programs are related to Medicare and Medicaid can be critically important in long-term transition planning.
M 6:30 - 7:30 pm	Emerald	Self-Deter: Parents, Teachers, Ser. Provider	Mary Jo Butler	Disability Rights Idaho	Guardianships for Young Adults: Are they Really Needed?	Training for parents, teachers, and others to explore ways to promote the independence of young adults. Topics include alternatives to guardianships, limited guardianships, and the rights of young adults.

Tools for Life Fair 2010 Session Schedule

Yellow in Day and Time column indicates sessions covered by Sign Language Interpreters

Day and Time	Room	Strand	Presenter	Company/Agency	Session Title	Session Description
Monday, March 1, 2010 - PARENT SESSIONS Con't
M 6:30 - 7:30 pm	Garnet	Employment: All	Rocio Ayala	Idaho Division of Vocational Rehabilitation	Vocational Rehabilitation - Transition Services for Students	This presentation will explain the purpose of vocational rehabilitation program for both ICBVI and IDVR and how vocational rehabilitation can assist a student, parent, and other professional with transition planning and coordination while the student is still in high school. We will discuss: application and eligibility for vocational rehabilitation; the VR process; post-secondary training; and employment readiness and other related topics.
M 7:45 - 8:45 pm	Cinnabar	AT/IT: All	Nora Jehn and Todd DeVries	IATP	Accessible Books and Textbooks	All students need access to the curriculum. Many students with disabilities need accessible instructional materials. Let us show you the many free or low cost sources of electronic, large print, audio, high interest/low reading level, and Braille books, periodicals, and textbooks available to Idaho students. Also learn how your school can receive free text-to-speech and scan-and-read software.
M 7:45 - 8:45 pm	Clearwater	Supporting Rural Families: All	Julie Magelky	CDHD	Idaho Help: An Online Directory of Local Services, Resources and Information	Families that live in Idaho who experience life with a disability often have a difficult time finding and receiving the services necessary to meet their highest levels of self reliance, independence and inclusion in their home communities. Although we are rated as the 13th largest state, we are the 7th most rural state in the US which creates challenges for families searching for information, resources and support. The Idaho Help Website is dedicated to supporting and enhancing the network of resources available to families in rural and urban area of the state. This session will provide an overview of the website and other web resources available to individuals and families.
M 7:45 - 8:45 pm	Delamar	Self-Deter: All	Charlene K. Quade	CK Quade Law, LLC	Legal Planning for Life After 18!	Transition is the necessary link between school and the student's future and their quality of life throughout adulthood. Transition involves a person's right to self direction. This may include assessing the need for legal planning, including the use of guardianship, conservators and/or Durable Powers of Attorney to enable the student and their families to realize their dreams and desires for the future.
M 7:45 - 8:45 pm	Liberty	Community Living: Students, Parents, Teachers, Ser. Provider	Patty Breshears and Millie Turritin	Medicaid Bureau of Developmental Disability Services	Choices and Pathways- Transitioning from Children's to Adult Medicaid Developmental Disability Support and Services	The Medicaid staff will present information about options available for young adults who receive Medicaid. The presentation includes information on the recent process changes, application and eligibility procedures and the difference between self direction and traditional programs.

Tools for Life Fair 2010 Session Schedule

Yellow in Day and Time column indicates sessions covered by Sign Language Interpreters

Day and Time	Room	Strand	Presenter	Company/Agency	Session Title	Session Description
Monday, March 1, 2010 - PARENT SESSIONS Con't
M 7:45 - 8:45 pm	Emerald	Employment: All	James Turner and Suzie Hanks	Disability Rights Idaho	Working without Fear of Losing Benefits	Make better, more well-informed decisions about working without fear of losing your benefits. Realize the many options available should you become employed. The work Incentives Planning and Assistance Program helps SSI, SSDI, or DAC beneficiaries understand how working can affect their benefits.
Tuesday, March 2, 2010
T 10:30 -11:30 am	Ballroom	Self Adv	Michael Beers	Self-Advocate	Spend Time with Michael	This session will allow a closer visit with Michael with time for questions and answers.
T 10:30 -11:30 am	Cinnabar	AT, Post Secondary Ed, Linguistic: All	To Be Announced	Cambium Learning Technologies	Universally Accessible Reading, Writing, and Study Support with Kurzweil 3000	Learn how Kurzweil 3000 helps individuals read any curriculum independently. See Kurzweil 3000 tools including word prediction, talking spell-check, and work with online tools like talking encyclopedias, online book search, and "Read the Web."
T 10:30 -11:30 am	Clearwater	Self-Deter: Students	Carol Pangburn	Boise State University Counseling Services	Get Out of Your Head and Into Your Life: Mindfulness for Stress	This presentation offers practical guidance for coping with academic challenges and life. Our minds can be useful tools or instruments of torment, sometimes provoking intense stress and anxiety. Mindfulness, a state of awareness of one's thoughts and emotions, has been clinically shown to be effective for managing stress.
T 10:30 -11:30 am	Delamar	Self-Deter: All	Valerie Stephan-LeBoeuf	CK Quade Law, LLC	Demystifying the SSA Disability Process	Planning for the transition from child to adult is essential to continue or secure Social Security Disability benefits. Parents, students, teachers, providers and other professionals are key participants in this process. Information shared will empower attendees with an understanding of the process and legal standards applicable to social security disability determination and benefits for persons with disabilities.

Tools for Life Fair 2010 Session Schedule

Yellow in Day and Time column indicates sessions covered by Sign Language Interpreters

Day and Time	Room	Strand	Presenter	Company/Agency	Session Title	Session Description
Tuesday, March 2, 2010
T 10:30 -11:30 am	Liberty	Post Sec: Professionals	Teresa Huffstutler and Gloria Jensen	UI: Disability Support Services	C-Print Captioning AND There's a Lecture in my Pocket!	C-Print captioning uses technology to aid d/Deaf and Hard-Of-Hearing students in accessing classroom lectures as they occur. Teresa Huffstutler demonstrates the uses and benefits of C-Print captioning for general and highly technical courses such as engineering, chemistry, and physics. Teresa will also demonstrate how every student can have a lecture in their pocket through the use of the Pulse Smartpen that allows students to take notes, listen to classroom lectures anywhere, share lectures with fellow students and even enables instructors to incorporate aspects of universal design into their classrooms.
T 10:30 - 11:30 am	Emerald	Self Deter: Students, parents, Teachers	Panel Group: Josh Renn, Amanda Wallace, and Wade Johnson	Idaho Council on Developmental Disabilities	Is There a Leader Inside of You?	Youth Leadership Forum is a week long leadership development program for junior and senior high school students with disabilities. YLF alumni will talk about their experiences at the 2009 forum, show a slide show of pictures and share materials to give a taste of YLF.
T 10:30 -11:30 am	Garnet	Community Living: All	Irene Jones and Ann Flannery	Idaho Falls and Magic Valley Community Transition Teams	Community Transition Team - A Tool to Enhance Transition Services in Your Community	Do you have the tools to promote and provide quality transition services? This session will provide technical and financial assistance to help you bring together adult service agencies, K-12 and post-secondary representatives, parents and students, and employers to enhance transition services.
T 10:30 -11:30 am	Opal	Self-Deter: Students, Parents	Mike Smith	Self Advocate	My Life Story	Join Mike as he shares stories of his life experiences while transitioning from high school to work.
T 10:30 -11:30 am	Topaz	Community Living: All	Mark Gunning, Angela Lindig, Susie Depew-Scarcello	Idaho Parents Unlimited	Juvenile Justice and Youth with Disabilities	This session demonstrates the impact of disability on youth in Juvenile Justice, including increased criminalization of school based problem behaviors, higher rates of vulnerability and incarceration. It incorporates strategies that help youth transition back to the community from correctional settings.
T 10:30 am - 12:00 pm	North Star	Community Living: Students, Parents, Teachers	Karen Richel	UI Extension in Financial Education	"That's Life" Simulation	"That's Life is a "real-life simulation" where you will be able to experience a glimpse of the future in a fun way. In an hour and a half, you will get to know some basic financial planning, decision making, and goal setting skills. You will also explore possible career choices, consider future goals, and find out another reason why school is so important...all while playing a game. Join us for some fun!
T 1:30 - 2:30 pm	Ballroom	Self-Adv	Logan Olson	Self-Advocate	More Time with Logan	This session will allow a closer visit with Logan with time for questions and answers.

Tools for Life Fair 2010 Session Schedule

Yellow in Day and Time column indicates sessions covered by Sign Language Interpreters

Day and Time	Room	Strand	Presenter	Company/Agency	Session Title	Session Description
Tuesday, March 2, 2010
T 1:30 - 2:30 pm	Cinnabar	AT/IT: Students, Parents, Teachers	Cherie Miller	Bookshare	Bookshare and the Post-Secondary Student: Making the Transition	Cherie Miller, Bookshare's University Program Manager, will outline ways that Bookshare's free, online accessible books and reading tools can help postsecondary students keep up with their reading-either for school work or pleasure.
T 1:30 - 2:30 pm	Clearwater	AT/IT: All	Russell Patterson	Hamilton Relay Services	Tools for Communication through Idaho Relay	This presentation is for anyone wanting more information on Idaho Relay services including: What Idaho Relay is and What's new; What Internet Relay is and how a person can get a 10 digit number to access it using a wireless device and/or computer; and What exactly a CapTel phone is and how CapTel services can be accessed.
T 1:30 - 2:30 pm	Delamar	Self-Deter: Student, Parent, Teacher, Ser. Provider, Professional	Christa Ledbetter	CK Quade Law, LLC	Affirmative Life Planning	The establishment of an Affirmative Life Plan utilizes a team approach involving family, professionals, and legal counsel to develop a comprehensive plan incorporating the hopes and dreams of a person with special needs. An Affirmative Life Plan addresses an array of issues unique to assisting persons with special needs in sustaining a quality of life with excellent care, supports, and resources throughout their lifetime, and assists in planning for the "extras" without jeopardizing the persons' government benefits.
T 1:30 - 2:30 pm	Liberty	Employment: All	Robin Greenfield	CDHD Idaho Project for Children and Youth with Deaf-Blindness	Employment for Students with Disabilities: From Competitive to Customized	This session will focus on how to use the Individualized Career Planning Model to customize employment experiences and paid employment for students with a significant impact of disability. To ensure individualization of career planning, vocational activities are guided by a process called Discovery and the Vocational Profile.
T 1:30 - 2:30 pm	Emerald	Post Sec Ed, Self-Der: All	Trina Balanoff, Dawn Sauve, Judy Secrist and Tracy Warren	Person Centered Planning	Person Centered Planning	Person-centered planning is a valuable tool for planning when you want a step-by-step plan to reach your post-school goals and when you want to make a change in your life. Come find out how it works from Person-Centered Planning Specialists.
T 1:30 - 2:30 pm	Garnet	Post Secondary Ed & AT: Students, Parents, Teachers	Mike Gibson	IPHED/Boise State University	Assistive Technology, Higher Education and You: What You Need to Know About AT in the Post Secondary World	This presentation will discuss challenges of accessing information and the roll of assistive technology in higher education. College-bound students with disabilities will be introduced to some of the assistive technology resources available on campus with emphasis on print disabilities.

Tools for Life Fair 2010 Session Schedule

Yellow in Day and Time column indicates sessions covered by Sign Language Interpreters

Day and Time	Room	Strand	Presenter	Company/Agency	Session Title	Session Description
Tuesday, March 2, 2010
T 1:30 - 2:30 pm	Opal	Employment Post Sec: All	Evelyn Mason	IPUL	Creative Access Center for the Arts	Learn about the new Creative Access Center for the Arts that will house the VSA arts of Idaho programs, the resource library and parent services staff of Idaho Parents Unlimited, an art gallery, dance program, matting and framing business, and artist teaching and workshop space.
T 1:30 - 2:30 pm	North Star	Community Living: All	Tammy Gardner and Molli Wingert	Computers for Kids	Computers for Kids	Computers for Kids is a non-profit organization that accepts donations of computers, refurbishes them and distributes computers to students (k-14th grade) that don't have computers at home for a nominal processing fee. Learn how to get computers for your students.